

BEST LOCAL ALBUMS OF 2012

P.O.S.

Far and away the readers' choice, P.O.S.' fourth full-length ignited Minnesota fans like a Molotov cocktail-started prairie fire. The enigmatic rapper's health issues didn't seem to hinder his creative drive and his polished new disc drew more than twice the votes of Poliça's breakthrough debut "Give Up the Ghost" (No. 2). P.O.S.' squeaking and skronking electro-bangers "Get Down" and "Weird Friends" have become crowd-amping staples, while the infectious single "Fuck Your Stuff" is a midtempo, materialism-shirking anthem. Buzzing electronic duo Wiping Out Thousands also nudged onto the list with its first L.P.M.R.
